About Us

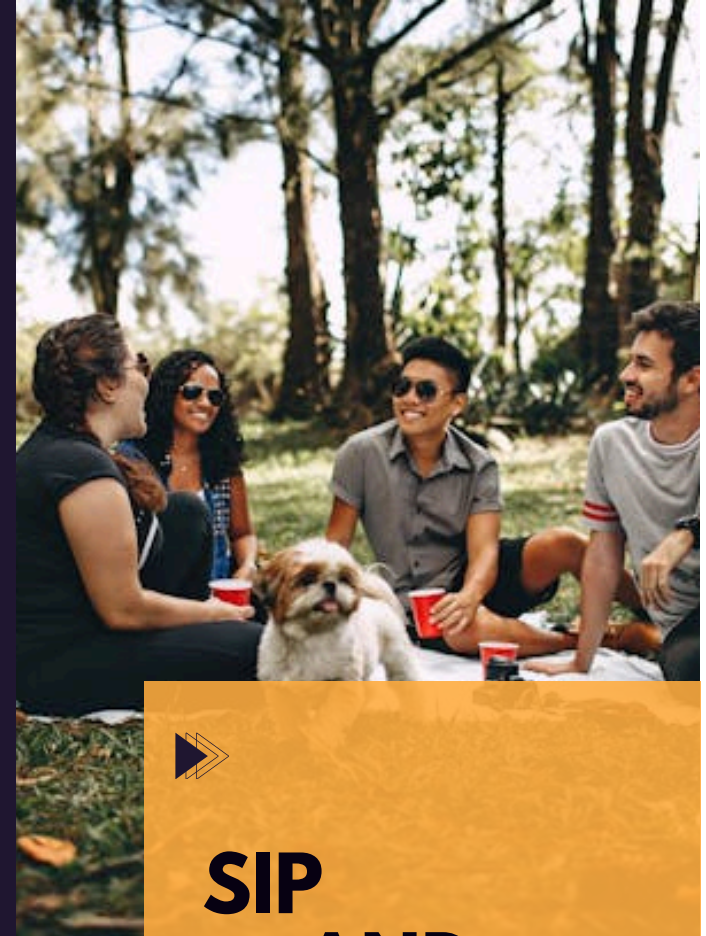

In a world that never stops moving, we believe there's something sacred in the pause — in that first sip of your favorite drink and the quiet confidence that comes from owning your style. Sip and Style was born from that belief.

It started with a simple idea:

✨ What if your everyday tumbler wasn't just a container... but a statement? What if your morning coffee could energize more than your body — what if it could reflect your mood, your vibe, your values?

We began with a single customized cup at a tiny kitchen table, crafting designs that spoke to people — not just what they drank, but who they were. Friends shared them, photos followed, and soon we were filling homes, handbags, and hearts with not just products, but purpose.

Today, Sip and Style is more than a shop. It's a movement — of mindful sipping, sustainable living, and stylish expression. We're proud to empower students, professionals, moms, and dreamers with tumblers that aren't just beautiful — they tell a story. Your story.
